MFBF Launches Faces Of Farm Bureau YouTube Video Channel

MARLBOROUGH, MASSACHUSETTS - Jan. 3, 2018 - To bring the faces of its members to the public, Massachusetts Farm Bureau Federation (MFBF) has launched a YouTube channel focused on its members' farms, the issues that concerns these members and how this organization has assisted them. To visit the channel, please go to: https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCWY6RJIIUTbc0xwiBk7zotg?disable\_polymer=true.

"Farm Bureau is built on the power of consensus," said MFBF President Ed Davidian, who farms in Northborough. "By allowing our members to put their own faces on these issues, we are giving them the opportunity to spread the message about the issues that matter most to them."

As MFBF is the largest general farming organization in the Commonwealth, this channel features dairy farmers, diversified livestock farmers, cranberry growers, fruit and vegetable growers and more.

"Our members are the life blood of MFBF," Davidian said. "This channel highlights that and will help everyone understand that if they support their local farmers, they should be a member of Farm Bureau. We have membership levels ranging from farmer member to consumer. There's something for everyone."

For those interested in joining the organization, they can visit www.mfbf.net to find a membership application. By joining this organization, you are assisting it in protecting the rights, encouraging the growth and being of service to its members.

In the meantime, stay tuned for more videos as they are added to our channel. Also, follow MFBF on Facebook and Twitter to get the latest updates.
